REMINISCENCE OF TRAVEL.—I recall an adventure with a night clerk once, in a Western town. I retired, leaving directions to be called for the express, which was coming along at three o'clock in the morning. It was important that I should not miss that train, and with this idea weighing upon my mind, I could not sleep much. Waking suddenly from a doze, I consulted my watch and found it was nearly 3 o'clock in the morning. I dressed hurriedly and going below, found the night clerk asleep, with his feet upon the stove, and a half-consumed cigar in his mouth. I shook him, and the following dialogue ensued.

Traveler: Won't the omnibus be here soon?
Clerk: (rousing fearfully): What omnibus?
Traveler: Why, the omnibus for the Eastern express.
Clerk: No omnibus (gasp) runs to that train.

Traveler: (growing excited at the prospect of being left): How far is it to the depot?
Clerk: (lazily striking a match to relight his cigar): 'Bout a mile.

Traveler: Well, call up the porter and send him down with my baggage, and I'll walk. Come, not time to lose.
Clerk: Porter won't get up. He goes to bed for sleep.

Traveler: (dancing around with nervous excitement): How am I to get to that train, then?
Clerk: (a long gap): Damfino.

Traveler: (dismayingly despairing): Would half a dollar induce you to go down to the depot with me, and carry my baggage?
Clerk: (springing to his feet with great alacrity): Certainly sir; I will light a lantern and jog right along.

The depot was about a mile from town, a lonely place, with no other building near. No friendly light glimmering from its windows, the agent probably enjoying his necessary five hours' sleep. "Good-bye," said the night clerk, as he received his half dollar and was about to return, leaving me to watch out in the cold for the train.

"See here," said I, "is this train usually on time?"
"Hardly ever known to be on time," replied the night clerk. "Three or four hours behind sometimes."

Here was a pleasant prospect for me, alone at the desolate depot, of a dark, wintry night. I was fearful of robbers, too. I hadn't much money; but how could the robbers be expected to know that?

"Can't you stay with me till the train comes?" I pleaded.
"I can't do it, boss, (gaping again.) Must get back to the hotel (gasp.) Good night (gasp.) take care of yourself, old man."

"What can I do if the train don't stop?" (Gasp.)
"Gasp fiercer than ever": "Damfino."
Visions of robbers filled my mind as the lantern receded, and I yelled, "Would half a dollar induce you to stop until the train comes?"

"Certainly," said the night clerk, cheerily, stopping his gait as he came on a run. For once the train was on time, so he was not long delayed. It halted but a second; I jumped on the platform with my baggage, the train started and the night clerk yelled, "Here, you! where's my half a dollar?" And the voice of the traveler came wafted back as he gasped, "Damfino."

SKETCH OF GOV. WARMUTH.—The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune gives the following in regard to Gov. Warmuth, of Louisiana:

"From all that can be understood, Gov. Warmuth, of Louisiana, is the most extraordinary and precocious leader in the South. He is represented to be six feet three inches high; of a slender, wiry build, but with a fine Kentucky looking face, large nose, full at the nostrils, keen measuring eyes, a superb moustache, well cut brows and chin. He is a native of Louisiana, began public life when 18 years of age, being then a fluent stump speaker, and now, at twenty eight, he is an arrogant, keen-witted, and successful man, worth probably a half a million of dollars, of which he had accumulated more than one hundred thousand in the practice of law in New Orleans. He is unmarried. Warmuth's weaknesses are his richness, boyishness, and implacability. He spends a short time, in every case of difficulty, to effect a compromise, and this failing, he resolves into an enemy, and is hence forward unappeasable. Glutted with power at an age when men generally are pouring over school books or learning some vocation, this extraordinary specimen of American opportunities in time of political chaos has already had an epic career. His courage, mental and physical, has been fully tested."

A NOVEL SURGICAL OPERATION.—The Louisville Courier Journal says that a Mr. Keiser, living beyond New Albany, Ind., was suffering a year ago from an abscess which had formed in his liver. He burst soon afterwards, and emptied its contents against the stomach. An ulcer was formed, which worked its way through the stomach, and afterward through the side, and through the aperture the food he ate passed out of the stomach. Mr. Keiser fell away to a mere skeleton, becoming very weak, and was evidently sinking rapidly into the grave. Drs. Cook and O'Reilly, of this city, were called to see the sufferer the other day. They made an opening in the side large enough to take out the bowels, which they mended or sewed up, and then put back in their proper place, and the patient is now doing very well and will probably recover. The operation is regarded as something entirely new, and as yet has no name in medical science.

A BAFLED MAN.—The Pueblo (Colorado) Chieftain gives a funny account of a Chicago man, who stopped in the flourishing young city of Greeley, and, being a trifle, tried in vain to get a square drink. "He went up one street and down another, he turned the corner of alleys, he sprang over ditches, he explored sheds and out houses, but the fluid for which his soul yearned could nowhere be found. He went hap-hazard into one building which he thought might be 'a saloon,' and encountered a prayer meeting. In another hall he found a farmers' club. Finally he received trustworthy information that there was not a drop of liquor in the place. He left, and wrote to his journal that the town of Greeley was 'without inhabitants, without resources, and without commerce."

DRUGS AND CHEMICALS.

SIMMONS' LIVER
The symptoms of Liver Complaint are uneasiness and pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is in the shoulder, and is mistaken for rheumatism. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general costive, sometimes alternating with laxity. The head is troubled with pain, and dull, heavy sensation, considerable loss of memory, accompanied with painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. Often complaining of weakness, debility and low spirits. Sometimes many of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at the liver is generally the organ most involved. Cure the liver with

E. J. MILLER.

MEDICAL.

Baltimore Lock Hospital.
DR. JOHNSTON,
Physician of this celebrated institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effective Remedy in the world for all

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.
Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling, Dizziness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices more fatal to the mind, than the songs of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, &c.

YOUNG MEN.
Especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, and dreadful and destructive habits which annually sweep to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or walked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.
Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness, Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency, Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualification, speedily relieved.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. Johnston, can confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS.
Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored. This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the great and serious consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of cohabitation, the most serious and destructive symptoms, both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened. Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Consumption, Debility, Decay and Death.

A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS.
Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury!
Persons ruined by Ignorant, Trifling Pretenders and their Deadly Poison, should apply immediately.

DR. JOHNSTON
Member of the Royal College of Surgery of London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the great part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden noises, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.
Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, uniting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of the Power of the Heart, Indigestion, Consumption, Debility, Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, their vigor, becoming weak, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN
Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, already described, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in pernicious habits. Such persons must, before contemplating

MARRIAGE.
Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote conjugal happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, and becomes a shadowy darkness to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another, is blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.
When a misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this fatal disease, it too often happens that he falls into the error of dread of discovery dreads him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, swollen nodes, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to this dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country from whence no traveller returns.

It is a melancholy fact that thousands die victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskillful PRETENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month, wasting their precious lives in a renewal of Life, Vigor and Happiness in despair leave him with ruined health to sigh over his galling disappointment.

DR. JOHNSTON,
Office, No. 7, SOUTH FREDERICK STREET BALTIMORE, MD.

Left hand side going from Baltimore street a few doors from the corner. Fail not to observe name and number.

No letters received unless postpaid and containing a stamp to be used on the reply. Persons writing should state age, and send a portion of advertisement describing symptoms.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.
The many thousands cured at his Establishment, year after year, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston witnessed by the representatives of the press and many other persons, who, before
